

Addiction, Emotion and the Brain

Presented by Donna Sue Spear, MA, LPC, CACIII, LADAC

Research-based information relating to the connections between emotional experience, the brain & addiction, and the clinical significance of these connections. This course incorporates a multi-media style, leveraging video clips, animated displays of neurochemistry, and experiential activities to reach participants with a variety of learning styles.

20 student maximum

14 hours/2 days

Elective for Colorado CAC Level II & III, also valid for CEU's in New Mexico

Training held in Towaoc, Colorado
Community Center

January 25-26, 2007, 9am – 5pm

Lunch provided by Ute Mountain Counseling & Treatment Center

Cost for training $160

West Slope Training Consortium members – included in your membership

Register for this class at:

<http://www.westslopecasa.org/Training.aspx>

West Slope Casa, LLC PO Box 234 Hot Sulphur Springs, CO 80451
970-725-3614 phone & fax

For more information or questions, send email to sroberts@cwrmmc.org